Jeff Young, "Vermont's Mr. Lilac"

Fort Hardy Park Youth Center, Route 29 East, Schuylerville

Jeff Young is the curator of the lilac collections at both the University of Vermont Horticultural Farm and the Shelburne Museum. He is also a consultant/lecturer for Mackinac Island, MI, famous for its June Lilac Festival. Jeff is a Vermont Master Gardener, a member of the International Lilac Society, and a park arborist. He lives in St. Albans, Vermont, and runs Lilac Terr LLC, specializing in landscaping, consulting and maintenance.

Bloomin' Joy

Cathy Rogers has created a unique and lovely flower farm, Bloomin' Joy, at 8 Miller Court in Burnt Hills. She has over a decade of experience working with ornamental grasses and perennials. A member of the Association of Specialty Cut Flower Growers, Cathy sells cut flowers to florists and holds an annual spring plant sale. Cathy's love for flowers inspired her to start a beautification project, "Town In Bloom", in Burnt Hills. She also works with inner city kids teaching them about the joy of growing flowers and making bouquets.

Bloomin' Joy Sale Dates for 2011:
May 19, 4-7 & May 20 & 21, 9-4
